

DIAGRAMS

Diagram	Page
1. British and American forces on western front.	10
2. Thousands of soldiers in Army each month.	11
3. Sources of the Army.	12
4. Male population registered and not registered.	15
5. Thousands of men drafted each month.	16
6. Sources of the commissioned personnel.	20
7. Soldiers furnished by each State.	21
8. Composition of National Guard divisions.	24
9. Officers commissioned from training camps, by ranks.	28
10. Officers commissioned from training camps, by services.	28
11. French instruction officers.	29
12. British instruction officers.	30
13. Time from organization of divisions to entering line.	31
14. Monthly sailings to France and home.	36
15. Growth of the trans-Atlantic fleet.	37
16. Growth of the cross-Channel fleet.	38
17. American troops carried by ships of each nation.	42
18. Turnarounds of transports.	43
19. Cargo shipped by months.	44
20. Cargo carried by corps.	45
21. Time for converting cargo ships to troop transports.	46
22. American production and Army purchases.	50
23. Motor trucks needed and available.	56
24. Costs of construction.	60
25. Stocks of food in France.	63
26. Springfields and Enfields.	66
27. Machine guns made in America.	69
28. Small arms available.	73
29. Artillery made in America.	79
30. Artillery ammunition made in America.	80
31. British and American artillery production.	82
32. Gas.	84
33. Artillery available.	88
34. Flying officers.	92
35. Training planes and engines.	95
36. Service planes.	96
37. Service engines.	98
38. Observation balloons.	101
39. Battle squadrons.	102
40. Planes sent to zone of advance.	103
41. Hours of flying.	106
42. Airplanes and balloons brought down in action.	107